COMMITTEE TO CONDEMN USE OF POISON GAS

COERCIVE ACTION OUT OF QUESTION

Geneva, May 13. It is understood that Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese Ambassador to Paris and chief delegate to the League of Nations, made an eloquent appeal for aid at a secret meeting of the League Council.

He asked for measures against Japan and practical help in the form of money and other immediate necessities.

In particular, Dr. Wellington Koo protested against the alleged intention of the Japanese to use poison gas.

Lord Halifax, British Foreign Secretary, said that coercive action was out of the question but he was in favour of doing something to prevent the use of gas.

M. Georges Bonnet, French Foreign Minister, supported the British Foreign Secretary, and the meeting decided to form a Committee to draft a resolution strongly condemning the use of poison gas.—(Reuter).

LOWERING RICE PRICES IN CANTON

Permits Granted To Importers

Canton, May 13. In order to lower rice prices, the Foodstuff Administration Commission is granting permits to importers of rice, with certain facilities attached, upon proof that the amount of foreign exchange has been obtained from the Central Bank of China.

Up to May 11, foreign rice up to 90,755 quintals were imported here by eleven firms with the approval of the Foodstuff Administration Commission.

A co-operative section of the Commission, to direct farmers in co-operative work in relation to demand and supply, was recently organized, and thirty members were sent today to the interior to assist farmers in their activities.

"To increase production is our aim," said Mr. Huang Lin-sheng, a member of the Commission, in giving instructions to the co-operative workers.

"Production in war time should be thoroughly understood by the farmers in accordance with the programme of Governor Wu Tse-chen. You have to be in close contact with planters in this work."—(International).

NEWS FROM THE WAR FRONT IN SPAIN

Advance Maintained By Nationalists

Salamanca, May 13. The Nationalists continued to advance in the Teruel sector.

The Nationalists captured important positions near Corbalan and occupied the entire mountain heights of Castelfrío, the village of Alpeuz and some hills on the road from Villaluenga to Fortanete.

In addition, the Nationalists occupied the village of Canada De Benatanduz and captured 287 prisoners.—(Transocean).

REPUBLICANS NEAR TREMP

Madrid, May 13. A communique issued by the Republican War Ministry last night reports that the Republican troops advanced to Tremp, and repelled an enemy attack.

Only minor activity prevailed on other sectors of that front. The Republican troops, of the Levant army, repelled several enemy on-slugs on Mount Barragan, and occupied important positions. From the other fronts nothing new is reported.—(Transocean).

FEARFUL SLAUGHTER FOLLOWS JAPANESE LANDING ON AMOY

MR. AW BOON-HAW'S OFFER TO HIS COUNTRY

Rangoon, May 13. The well-known overseas Chinese millionaire, Mr. AW Boon-haw, is returning to China with the intention of offering $2,000,000 to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek towards building a hospital for disabled soldiers and a home for war orphans.

Mr. Aw is the proprietor of the famous Tiger Balm medicine factory as well as a newspaper owner.—(Reuter).

FOREIGNERS REQUESTED TO EVACUATE

Shanghai, May 13. The representatives of foreign Powers here have been advised, in an official Japanese communication, that military operations will be commenced immediately in the provinces of Kiangsu, Anhwei and Honan and also south of the Yellow River, particularly along the Lunghai Railway, the Tientsin-Pukow Railway and Peiping-Hankow Railway.

The Japanese therefore urgently request foreigners to evacuate these areas, but simultaneously emphasize that every possible protection in the areas occupied will be given.—(Transocean).

POLAND NOT TO RECOGNISE MANCHUKUO

Hankow, May 13. Rumours emanating from Japanese sources that Poland will soon recognise Manchukuo are discredited by reliable reports from Warsaw, which state that the Polish Government has never given any thought to the question.—(Central News).

NEW CREST FOR THE ARMY

DESIGN APPROVED BY THE KING

The War Office announces that the King has been graciously pleased to approve a design for a badge for the Army. The design consists of two crossed swords in saltire proper pommels and hilts or surmounted by the Royal Crest. When displayed upon a flag, the background will be red.

In 1935 the Army Council was approached for permission to incorporate the Army crest in the design for the stained-glass window to be placed in Ypres Cathedral in memory of the late King Albert of Belgium. At that time there was no Army crest in existence.

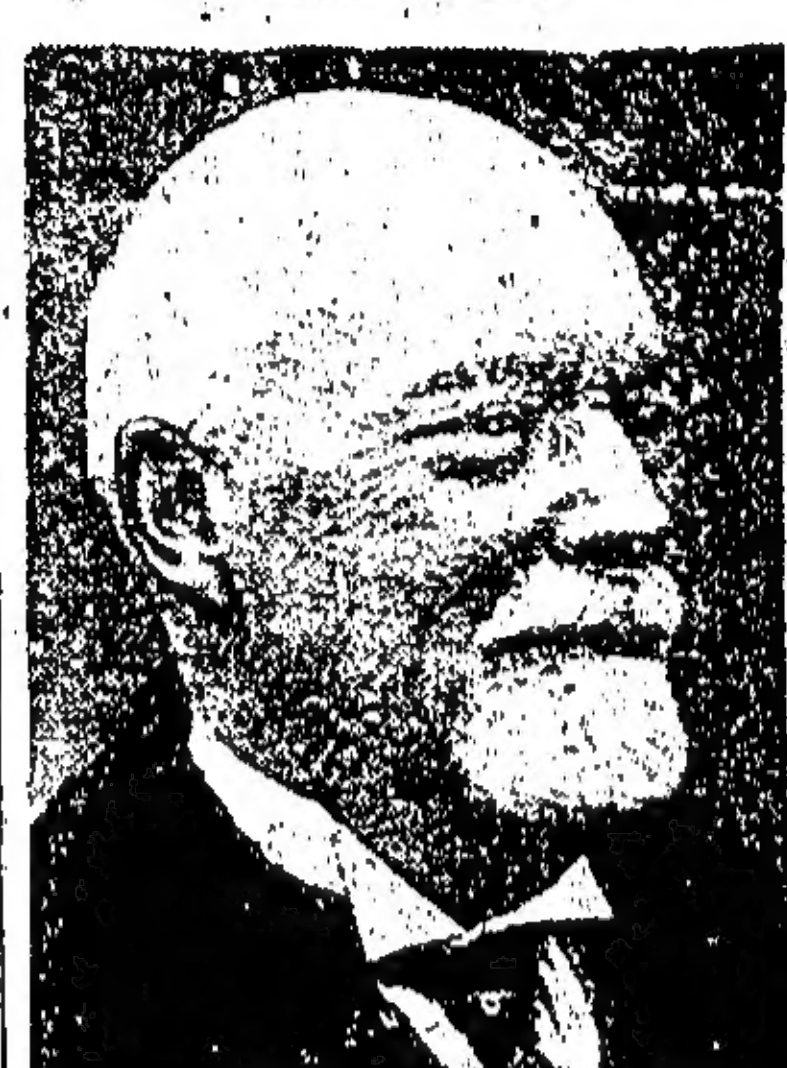

King George V, who was approached on the subject, approved of a crest which should incorporate the King's crest and mantling. The design was prepared by Capt. H. Oakes-Jones, M.B.E., F.R.A., of the War Office.

This design, while highly suitable for the purpose of a stained-glass window, was too elaborate for general use. A simplification of the design approved by King George V was therefore prepared.

This design was first seen by the public lying on a flag at the Services Pavilion when the Empire Exhibition opened at Glasgow recently.

BELGIAN CABINET TO RESIGN

M. PAUL EMILE JANSON

Brussels, May 13. Resignation of the Janson Cabinet is expected this evening, says the Belgian news agency, which states that the Premier's efforts to effect a partial reconstruction of the Ministry has hitherto met with no success.—(Transocean).

THOUSANDS FROM AMOY SEEK SHELTER HERE

Japanese Attack Came With Startling Suddenness

The first batch of 2,000 refugees from Amoy arrived in Hong Kong aboard the ss. Fungking yesterday morning. They were met at the wharf by representatives of the Fukien Chamber of Commerce, friends and relatives.

Another batch of more than 2,000 is expected to arrive here by the ss. Anking today states Central News.

Registration of these refugees has been started under the auspices of the Fukien Chamber of Commerce preparatory to relief.

According to the refugees who arrived yesterday, Japanese warships opened heavy fire early in the morning of May 10. Chinese forts at Peishih and Hualishan replied and scored several hits.

Later, a squadron of Japanese planes bombed the Chinese positions to cover the landing of 300 Japanese bluejackets and Manchukuo irregulars. When they were near, the Chinese troops encircled and attacked them. Two Japanese planes were hit by Chinese anti-aircraft fire and crashed.

FIGHTING INTENSIFIED

About 4 o'clock in the afternoon the Japanese succeeded in reaching the immediate suburbs of Amoy city but were driven back about 7 p.m. by Chinese reinforcements from Chengchow.

Fighting was intensified at dawn on May 11. Japanese planes dropped many bombs on the city and several huge fires broke out. The Chinese continued to put up stiff resistance. Half of the Japanese who landed were annihilated, whilst casualties on the Chinese side were also heavy.

After retreating to the hills, the Chinese troops are still fighting heroically.

WHOLESALE MURDER OF THOUSANDS OF CHINESE MEN, WOMEN, CHILDREN

INVADERS' POSITIONS DAMAGED FOLLOWING AERIAL ATTACK

Foochow, May 13. Helpless victims of wanton massacre by the Japanese troops, between 3,000 and 4,000 Chinese were killed or wounded in a fearful slaughter which followed the landing of the invaders on Amoy on May 10.

Pandemonium now reigns in the ill-fated island, and mass slaughter of innocent men, women and children, reminiscent of the disgraceful conditions which obtained following the fall of Nanking, is being enacted once again by the Japanese.

Along Tatum and Chungshan Roads, main thoroughfares of the business section of the island, row after row of important buildings were razed by Japanese bombardment, and casualties totalled hundreds.

Sporadic fighting and fierce sniping continues between Japanese bluejackets and isolated units of Chinese soldiers behind vantage points.

Members of the Amoy City Government and all other public organs, together with thousands of refugees, evacuated on the afternoon of May 11, leaving the Chinese defence force to make a last determined stand against the invaders.

According to military intelligence reports, the Japanese troops who landed on Amoy constitute a detachment belonging to the first division.

Following several unsuccessful attempts to break through the Chinese defence line to the heart of Amoy city on May 10, the Japanese intensified their attack on the following morning, with the help of planes and warships, on the Chinese positions.

Subjected to terrific shelling, the defence works were completely destroyed, forcing the Chinese to shift their position to Amoy city.

Throughout the night of May 11, the Chinese put up stiff resistance and accounted for more than 400 Japanese killed and wounded.

Up to noon yesterday, the Chinese kept their posts despite vigorous Japanese assaults. At the same time, a squadron of Chinese planes raided the Japanese positions, inflicting heavy damage.—(Central News).

STREET FIGHTING

Hankow, May 13. Chinese reports claim that Chinese troops, police and militiamen are still holding out in Amoy and street fighting is still going on in Chungshan Road, though the main body of the Chinese forces have withdrawn from the Amoy city area.—(Reuter).

AMOY GUARDED

Shanghai, May 13. Amoy is now guarded by the Japanese bluejackets who occupied the city on Wednesday night, a spokesman for the Japanese army announced today. Chinese soldiers are still offering resistance to the naval landing party. The spokesman stated that no Chinese soldiers in uniform would be allowed to enter Kiangsu.—(Reuter).

Relief from FOOT-ITCH

[Sometimes Called] [ATHLETE'S FOOT]

ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED
Stop Foot or Toe-Itch Quick

How To Treat It

ACCORDING to the Government Health Bulletin No. E 28, at least 10% of the adult population of the United States are being attacked by the disease known as Athlete's Foot.

There are many other names given to this disease, but you can easily tell if you have it.

Usually the disease starts between the toes. Little watery blisters form and the skin cracks and peels. After a while the itching becomes intense and you feel as though you would like to scratch off all the skin.

Often the disease travels all over the bottom of the feet. The soles of your feet become red and swollen. The skin also cracks and peels, and the itching becomes worse and worse.

It has been said that this disease originated in the trenches, so some people call it Trench Foot. Whatever name you give it, however, the thing to do is to get rid of it as quickly as possible, because it is very contagious and it may go to your hands or even to the under arm or crotch of legs.

Most people who have Athlete's Foot have tried all kinds of remedies to cure it without success. Ordinary germicides, antiseptics, or ointments seldom do any good.

The germ that causes the disease is known as Trichophyton. It buries itself deep in the tissues of the skin and is very hard to kill. A test made shows that it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill the germ, so you can see why the ordinary remedies are unsuccessful.

H. F. was developed solely for the purpose of treating Athlete's Foot. It is a liquid that penetrates and dries quickly. You just paint the affected parts. It peels off the infected skin and works its way deep into the tissue of the skin where the germ breeds.

As soon as you apply H. F. you will find that the itching is immediately relieved. You should paint the infected parts with H. F. night and morning until your feet are well. Usually this takes from three to ten days, although in severe cases it may take longer or in mild cases less time.

H. F. will leave the skin soft and smooth. You will marvel at the quick way it brings you relief, especially if you are one of those who have tried for years to get rid of Athlete's Foot without success.

Copy of Report of Drs. Couret and Hauser after they had submitted H. F. to a thorough examination.

Note that by actual laboratory test H. F. kills the Itch germ in less than 15 seconds. Remember that the Government states in Health Bulletin E 28 that it takes 15 minutes of boiling to kill this germ. You can appreciate therefore how remarkable H. F. is.

DRS. COURET & HAUSER,

728-30 Audubon Bldg.

September 4, 1931.

We hereby submit results of examination of your preparation known as H. F. submitted for determination of Bactericidal properties. The determinations were carried out against the fungi Trichophyton and Epidermophyton, the type of parasite causing foot itch, known commonly as ring worm of the foot or Athlete's Foot. It was also carried out against several pathogenic bacteria, including several pyogenic bacteria.

Standard methods of technique were used.

Your preparation killed the Trichophyton and Epidermophyton in less than 15 seconds. It also killed B. Typhoid, B. coli, Staphylococcus aureus, Streptococci, and M. Catarrhalis in less than 15 seconds.

Respectively submitted,

DRS. COURET & HAUSER.

TENANT WHO COULD NOT FIND ACCOMMODATION

"Tent In Statue Square" Solution To Eviction

Eviction orders were made against two Europeans by the Pains Judge, Mr. Justice R.E. Lindell, in Summary Court yesterday when actions were brought against them by landlords.

In one case, defendant, S. W. Clark, pleaded that he could not possibly find a place suitable for himself and his family of four and the "only alternative appeared to be a tent in Statue Square."

Defendant was the tenant of the Ka Chuen Land Estate, told the Court he could not remove on April 30, the date on which his notice expired, as his son was then between life and death. He asked the wife of the caretaker, who collected the rent, for an extensive and she said she would give him a reply the next day.

Mr. E. S. C. Brooks, who appeared for the plaintiffs, said defendant had been given two other notices, the first in December last year.

His Lordship: No action was taken in respect of the first notice?

Mr. Brooks: Unfortunately my clients distressed for rent.

Defendant: I went up to pay the rent but they would not accept it and gave me a distraint.

His Lordship: I am not concerned with that. All I am concerned with is the notice in question.

Defendant: My son was taken ill on April 10 and gradually grew worse. I have asked the S.C.A. to mediate but they said they couldn't.

MUST VACATE

His Lordship: Why was the plaintiff so anxious to recover the premises?

Mr. Brooks: I understand defendant has not been a very satisfactory tenant.

His Lordship: Are you prepared to extend till the end of the month?—I cannot, because I have no instructions to do so.

Plaintiffs were given judgment for possession of the premises within 21 days and mesne profits, at the rate of $1.25 a day, up to the date of possession.

"You must move out at the end of the month," said His Lordship to defendant, and the latter was heard to say that he had tried but "could not find any house."

LOCAL DOCTOR SUMMONED

Found Guilty On Driving Offence

Mr. E. H. Williams, Assistant Attorney General was the complainant yesterday when Dr. S. Strahan was summoned before Mr. Butters at the Central Court on a charge of driving without due care and caution in Stubbs Road on April 23.

"I was driving my car in Stubbs Road," said Mr. Williams in the witness-box. "There are two bends above the garage near the junction of Barker Road and Stubbs Road. These two bends are separated by a distance of 120 to 140 feet approximately."

"I was travelling very slowly, about 20 miles per hour. I don't think I was doing 25. As I was rounding the upper bend coming down I saw a small Morris saloon on the wrong side of the road in the act of passing a van. Both of them were coming out of Stubbs Road. The two were midway between the two bends. I had to put on my foot brakes and stop so as to allow the Morris to pass."

Mr. Williams added that he later noticed that the driver of the Morris saloon was Dr. Strahan and his car was about 50 feet away from defendant's.

HAD A GREAT FRIGHT

Asked as to how he noticed the time to be about 1.30 p.m. Mr. Williams said that he told his wife that he would report the incident to the police as they both had a great fright, and he, particularly, looked at his watch to mark the time.

Dr. Strahan, in evidence, said that he remembered passing a van on the day in question. He had been following the van for a considerable time and thought it would be safe to overtake. He was not driving at any excessive speed.

In finding defendant guilty, Mr. Butters remarked that it would be advisable for defendant to have waited until he reached the upper bend. In the Colony, where there were so many bends in the roads, a certain amount of care had to

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN NEWSPRINT ACTION

Judgment was reserved by the Full Court yesterday at the conclusion of the appeal brought by the New Kwok Man Chau Ka, the Tung Hing Company, and Li Poyuen, partner therein, against the judgment of the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, who decided in favour of the Union Trading Company, plaintiffs in a claim for $8,189.48 for old newspapers bargained for and sold.

There were five defendants in the original action, but two of these did not appeal against the judgment. The contracts for the newspapers were between the respondents and the Kwok Man Chau Ka. One of the defendants who did not appeal, but appellants were held to be responsible as transferees of the business.

The Pains Judge, Mr. Justice R.E. Lindell, and Mr. Justice J.A. Fraser, heard the appeal. Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, instructed by Mr. C.A.S. Russ, appeared for appellants, while respondents were represented by the Hon. Leo D'Almada Jnr., on the instruction of Mr. M.A. da Silva.

At the first hearing, Mr. Fitzroy submitted the grounds for appeal. Mr. D'Almada, who had begun his submissions on Thursday, completed them yesterday.

Following Mr. Fitzroy's reply, the Court announced its decision to take time for consideration.

RICKSHAW PULLER GAOLED

A rickshaw puller, Ngau Ma, who assaulted Mrs. Olga Marsh, of No. 81, Kimberley Road, was sentenced to six days' hard labour at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

Ng Au-yau, another rickshaw puller, was fined $2 for giving false evidence. He told the court that he saw defendant going in the direction of Nathan Road after the alleged assault. Actually defendant was caught at Chatham Road, by Mr. Marsh.

be exercised in passing another vehicle.

A fine of $10 was imposed.

TRAFFIC CASES AT CENTRAL

Sappers Drove Too Fast

Sappers J. Dunstone, L. Amey and H. R. Heath, three Royal Engineers lorry drivers, were each fined $8 by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday for driving at an excessive speed along King's Road on April 28.

Pleading guilty to the summons, defendants stated that at the time the road was without much traffic.

Lua Man-cho, a Chinese reporter, was fined $3 for leaving his car unattended in Ice House Street on April 24. He pleaded guilty, saying that he could not find any other place and that he was in a hurry to "cover" a murder story in Kowloon.

For causing an obstruction in Duddell Street on April 28, Lu Tak-cheuk was fined $5. Sergeant Sargent said that cars were only allowed to be parked on the west side of the street.

Also summoned for leaving their vehicles unattended, Mrs. Y. Y. Wong, of Nathan Road, and Mr. H. Masuda, of Ice House Street, were each fined $5.

A fine of $10 was imposed on Mrs. Sheng Wai Sin-chi, of 9 Gap Road, for leaving her car unattended outside Marina House for three-quarters of an hour on April 28. Traffic-Sergeant G. Appleton said the chauffeur told him Mrs. Sheng was shopping.

MOTORISTS FINED IN KOWLOON

A fine of $8 was imposed by Mr. Macfadyen when Mr. H. Morris of No. 8 Hart Avenue, was summoned at the Kowloon Court yesterday for driving his car in Chatham Road in excess of 30 m.p.h. on April 21.

A similar fine was imposed on Mr. Norman Lee, of No. 1 Essex Crescent, for failing to keep his motor cycle on the left side of the road when rounding the junction of Embankment Road and Duke Street.

Pleading guilty by letter, Mr. J. G. Gifford Hull, of No. 190 Prince Edward Road, was fined $5 for leaving his car on the north (prohibited) side of Saigon Street, near the Majestic Theatre, on April 21.

For having faulty hand and foot brakes in his lorry, Mr. L. R. Brown, of No. 269 Prince Edward Road, was fined $20.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

AT THE EMPIRE EXHIBITION

The Catholic Pavilion at the Empire Exhibition in Glasgow will be formally opened today. The building was completed in time for the opening of the Exhibition, but the official ceremony in connection with its opening was deferred until the end of the second week.

The position is an excellent one. It dominates the Mossbank side of the hill, and stands on a higher level than any of the buildings of the Exhibition with the exception of the Observation Tower at the top of the hill. It has entrances from two of the main avenues. The design is well worthy of the site. It is modern in conception and has a striking tower, seventy feet in height. It contains an oratory and a two halls of exhibits, one of them being devoted to the missions. Several of the exhibits are of great interest in the history of the Catholic Church in Scotland.

The opening ceremony will be performed by Archbishop Mackintosh of Glasgow, who was present at the opening ceremony of the Exhibition by the King and Queen last week.

One of the notable places in England recently visited by Her Majesty the Queen was Denville Hall, Northwood, Middlesex, the Rest Home for Aged Actors and Actresses. The name of the house commemorates its donor, Mr. Alfred Denville, M.P., one of the most prominent of the Catholic Members of Parliament. The Denville family has a long theatrical tradition and the gift of this house is only one of the family's many good deeds for the profession in general.

At a performance ten years ago four generations of the family appeared on the stage together, and Mr. Denville still frequently acts with his own companies when Parliament is not sitting. In the House of Commons he has been a keen supporter of the cause of the Nationalists in Spain, and for that reason he was dubbed by some of the Opposition "Francis's M.P." His personal popularity, however, always obtains for him a hearing for any cause that he espouses. He is an old boy of Ushaw, the Benedictine College near Durham.

SPENCER TRACY

One of the best known Catholic film actors in Hollywood is to make his appearance as a priest for the second time. This is Spencer Tracy, who received the award of the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences as the leading male star of 1937. His most notable performance was that of Manuel a sailor, in Captains Courageous. His first part as a priest was in "San Francisco," and it was because of the warm praise which he received for it that he was given the part of Fr. Flanagan in "Boys' Town," which is his next picture. "Boys' Town" is a reality for it is a township in Nebraska and in it hundreds of homeless boys are cared for, regardless of race, colour or creed, by Fr. Flanagan, its founder.

The real Fr. Flanagan recently visited the M.G.M. studios in Hollywood and had a talk with Spencer Tracy, and also with Mickey Rooney who will play the chief boy's part in the film.

NEW ZEALAND AND SOUTH AFRICA

One film actor suggests another, though the second is a retired star. He is now known more on his sister's account than on his own, for Mr. John Batten, formerly of Hollywood and now in the broadcasting station at Auckland, New Zealand, is a brother of the well known New Zealand aviator, Miss Jean Batten. Miss Batten is not a Catholic, but her brother is, for he was received into the Church some six years ago.

Another colonial Catholic, though certainly not a film star, who was recently in the news, is the Hon. Mr. Justice Stratford, who has been appointed Chief Justice of the Union of South Africa. The new Chief Justice is a native of South Africa. He was born at Port Elizabeth and educated at St. Aidan's, the Jesuit College in Grahamstown, before going to Oxford. He has been a member of the Transvaal Bar since 1920. He was raised to the Transvaal Bench in 1921, and became a Judge of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa in 1927.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

Subject: Mortals and Immortals

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches tomorrow May 15 will be "Mortals and Immortals."

The Golden Text will be "As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly."—(1 Cor. 15:48).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible "O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained; what is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet."—(Ps. 8:1-4, 6, 7).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "In Science man is the offspring of Spirit. Spirit is his primitive and ultimate source of being; God is his Father, and Life is the law of his being. Life is always has been and ever will be independent of matter; for Life is God and man is the idea of God, not formed materially but spiritually and not subject to decay and dust. The Psalmist said: 'Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands. Thou hast put all things under his feet.'—(Pages 63, 200).

ROYAL NAVY

CAPTAIN-SUPERINTENDENT AT SYDNEY

Captain H. C. Phillips, who has been lent to the Royal Australian Navy, will take up the post of Captain-Superintendent of the dockyard at Sydney, and Captain-in-Charge, New South Wales, in succession to Captain G. A. Scott, D.S.C., R.N.

CHATHAM GUNNERY SCHOOL

Captain Percy Todd assumed command on May 4 of the Gunnery school at Chatham in succession to Captain A. D. Read, who on completing two years in this post is to take command of the new cruiser Liverpool.

SIGNALLING EXERCISES

Extracts published in Fleet Orders from the quarterly returns of signalling exercises between H. M. ships and British merchant vessels for the quarter ended December 31, 1937 show an appreciable advance in numbers.

There were 1,572 successful exercises, which compares with 1,431 for the previous quarter; 1,154 for the corresponding period of 1936; and 735 for the corresponding period of 1935. The 6th Destroyer Flotilla, Home Fleet, came first in order of merit with 118 exercises; followed by the 4th Destroyer Flotilla, Home Fleet, with 108; and the 8th Destroyer Flotilla, China, with 84.

The cruisers Danae, on passage home from China, and Galatea, in the Mediterranean, each had 80 exercises. British Tanker Company's vessels, with 137 exercises, again headed the list on the mercantile side.

There were 108 exercises by ships of the China Navigation Company, and 97 by those of the Ellerman Lines. These mercantile figures do not indicate comparative signal efficiency since opportunities for signalling are varied.

THE ARMY

DISPLAYS AT EMPIRE EXHIBITION

Visitors to the Empire Exhibition at Glasgow will see demonstrations of how physical fitness is developed in the Army.

In addition to the exhibits of weapons, photographs, and models in the Services Pavilion, there are displays of various kinds outside the pavilion; and during this month physical training displays are being given by recruits from The Highland Light Infantry (City of Glasgow Regiment) and The Royal Scots.

In the Army the process of making a man fit and keeping him fit has long been a primary concern because it was early recognized that physical fitness was the basis not only of endurance and morale, but also of mental alertness and self-control. The remarkable results of scientific and simple exercises on the physique of recruits may be seen from the charts and statistics kept in all depots.

SIR JAMES COOKE-COLLIS

NEW LIEUTENANT-COLONELS

Five majors were promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel on April 30, at an average age of 46. Lieutenant-Colonel E. E. Nott-Bower, M.C., R.E., is 44; Lieutenant-Colonel E. E. Read, M.C., R.E., is 42; Lieutenant-Colonel J. Warren, R.A.O.C., is 50; Lieutenant-Colonel J. H. Graham, R.A.O.C., is 51; and Lieutenant-Colonel P. McLare, R.A.O.C., is 47.

Major L. J. H. Gardiner, R.A.O.C., has been given the local rank of lieutenant-colonel as a member of the Mechanization Board at Woolwich Arsenal. He is 45.

NEW P.T. DEPOT FOR RECRUITS

Arrangements have been completed for bringing the new Recruits' Physical Training Depot at Scarborough into full use. The work at the new depot, which will follow the lines adopted at the experimental establishment at Canterbury, has been entrusted to Major R. Morton, M.C., from the 2nd Battalion, The Cheshire Regiment, at Aldershot.

ROYAL AIR FORCE

COMMAND AT CATTERICK

Wing Commander C. L. King, M.C., D.F.C., who has been on air staff duties in Iraq since 1935, has been appointed to command the R.A.F. station at Catterick in succession to Wing Commander C. P. Brown, D.F.C. Formerly the base of No. 26 (Army Cooperation) Squadron for duty with the Northern Command, Catterick has also accommodated No. 41 (Fighter) Squadron since its return from Aden in 1936.

LAWN TENNIS

Eliminating contests for the Princess Mary's R.A.F. Nursing Service annual lawn tennis tournament for the Dame Joanna Cruickshank cup will be held at Cranwell, Halton, and Uxbridge under arrangements to be made by the matron at each hospital.

Entries must reach the matron of the hospital concerned not later than May 27.

The semi-finals and final will be played at Uxbridge on June 29. The challenge cup is held by the mess of the winning competitor for one year, a replica being presented to the winner.

BRITAIN'S AIR EXPANSION PROGRAMME IS CRITICISED

MR. ATTLEE CHARGES THAT EVEN IN 1940 POSITION WOULD BE INFERIOR TO GERMANY

Independent Inquiry Sought

LONDON, MAY 13. ALLEGED DEFICIENCIES IN CONCEPTION AND DELAYS IN THE EXECUTION OF THE GOVERNMENT'S AIR EXPANSION PROGRAMME WERE SEVERELY CRITICISED BOTH IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS AND THE HOUSE OF LORDS IN THE COURSE OF THE DEBATE ON THE AIR MINISTRY VOTE YESTERDAY.

MR. C. R. ATTLEE, LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION, DECLARED THAT THE POSITION WAS GRAVE AND WAS CAUSING WIDESPREAD ANXIETY. HE URGED FOR AN INQUIRY.

Mr. Attlee declared that German production was double that of Great Britain and Government proposals would not bring the country even in 1940 to the position in which Germany is today.

British air force machines, alleged Mr. Attlee, were very largely obsolete and obsolescent. (Mr. Winston Churchill—"Hear, hear!")

LEAGUE DEBATE ON ABYSSINIA

China's Views Expressed By Dr. Wellington Koo

Geneva, May 13. The League Council debate on the Abyssinian question was adjourned until Thursday afternoon after the Soviet attitude in the matter had been explained by M. Maxim Litvinoff, the Soviet Commissar for Foreign Affairs.

M. Litvinoff held that the League Council should adhere to the principle of declining to recognise conditions created by an act of aggression undertaken against people living in peace. Furthermore, he added, they should bear in mind earlier resolutions of the Council and the Assembly condemning acts of aggression.

If the Council now proceeds to adopt a resolution as desired by Britain, namely that members are to be given liberty of choice in the matter of recognising the Italian conquest of Abyssinia, it would be giving countenance to aggressors, said M. Litvinoff.

After the representatives of Rumania, Poland, Peru, Sweden, New Zealand, Bolivia and China had voiced the views of their respective countries, the President, M. Munters, summed up by saying that the Council did not feel itself authorised to lay down any definite principles in this matter. It would also not proceed to adopt a formal resolution dealing with the Abyssinian question. It would suffice to register the fact that the majority of the Council members had decided in favour of the standpoint that the recognition of the occupation of Abyssinia should be left to the discretion of each individual country.

CHINA'S VIEWS

One of the last speakers was Dr. Wellington Koo, China's representative. He said that the Chinese Government was endeavouring to understand the British point of view. Much had been said in the course of the debate about political realities but little reference had been made to principles and legitimate rights.

The Chinese Government, however, desired to emphasise the importance of the principles of international law and justice. If the League of Nations was striving to draw up a formula which aimed at giving sanction to violence, then China would be found unwilling to subscribe to such a formula. (Transocean).

BRITISH PROPOSAL ATTACKED

Geneva, May 13. The Council of the League of Nations will meet in public tomorrow to discuss the Chinese appeal.

Dr. Wellington Koo yesterday attacked the British proposal, put forward by Lord Halifax in connection with recognition of the conquest of Ethiopia.

Any step which might carry with it an indication of the employment of force as an instrument of policy in international affairs in order to be successful, he complained. Such a situation would prove an encouragement to the forces of aggression and in the end detrimental, and even dangerous, to the genuine cause of peace.

NO JUSTIFICATION

The fact that numbers of League-member states had actually acted in contravention of the League resolutions was no justification that others should follow their example, as this would amount to putting a premium

BELGIAN CRISIS

RESIGNATION OF HIGH MINISTERS REPORTED

Brussels, May 13. Following several days of political tension in Belgium, owing to disagreement among Government parties over new taxation plans, three members of the Cabinet, belonging to the Catholic Party—the Ministers of Agriculture, of Justice and of Economy—have expressed a desire to resign.

The Prime Minister, M. Paul-Emile Janson, went to the Palace to consult with the King of the Belgians yesterday, after His Majesty had flown back to Brussels from The Hague in the afternoon on account of the political situation.

After his audience with the King, M. Janson stated that the announcement that three members of the Cabinet had resigned was erroneous. (Reuter).

upon unilateral repudiation of obligations collectively undertaken.

For these reasons, he said warmly, if a decision were taken in the Council's name in the sense proposed, the Chinese Government would be unable to support it.

If, on the other hand, the present discussion was merely for the purpose of giving each member state represented on the Council an opportunity to declare its attitude upon the situation without prejudice to the principles of the Covenant or to the resolution affirming the principle of non-recognition of conquests, the Chinese Government would content itself by reserving its position with regard to the principles involved. (Reuter).

NO U.S. RECOGNITION

Washington, May 13. The United States' attitude on the Ethiopian question remains unchanged, stated Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, in reply to questions whether there would be any revision of national policy as a result of the Anglo-French statements in the League of Nations Council meeting yesterday.

He added the United States would maintain its policy of non-recognition of territory gained by force or by violation of existing treaties. The United States did not intend to deviate from the basic principles governing international relations as outlined in Mr. Hull's statement of July 16, 1937. (Reuter).

"We ought to concentrate on vital types of machines such as powerful fighters and long-range bombers instead of going into all sorts and types," said Mr. Attlee. "Experts have told me that twelve types are enough instead of the 37 that we are now producing." The Opposition leader alleged that there was lack of organisation in the shadow factories, absence of blind flying instruments and inter-department trouble. He declared that changes were needed at the top. (Reuter).

GOVERNMENT'S REPLY

Lord Winterton, who was recently appointed deputy in the House of Commons to Lord Swinton, Air Minister, met the Opposition attack by a disclosure of what he described as a "new programme" which "entirely overshadows the programme we undertook three years ago and which itself was absolutely unprecedented in peace time."

Figures of the new programme given were that by March, 1940 the Metropolitan Air Force would have reached a first line strength of approximately 2,350 aircraft. Overseas squadrons would have a first line strength of approximately 490, and the first line strength of the Fleet Air Arm would be increased to 560. The resulting aggregate of air power would represent a first line strength of approaching 3,500 aircraft.

MR. C.R. ATTLEE

As further indication of the scale of the new programme the Minister mentioned that in personnel expansion, no less than 40,000 officers and men would be required, bringing the total personnel in the Royal Air Force to 110,000. Another 30 new aerodromes would also be needed.

PERFORMANCE

Turning from the programme to performance, Lord Winterton referred to the suggestion of Sir Hugh Seelye, who opened the debate for the Liberals, that execution of the programme was greatly in arrears. He gave assurance that the idea was absolutely mistaken. The scheme under which a first line air strength of 1,750 was to be reached by next April was well up to schedule.

Lord Winterton declared emphatically that the Royal Air Force as a whole was not behind other air forces in up-to-dateness and newness of its machines. Existing types were satisfactory and new types were even better he said.

MISSION TO U.S.

On the question of purchase of machines from the United States, Lord Winterton recounted how an investigation was made about two years ago into this possibility, but it was then found that the United States did not have the machines which the Air Ministry required.

Now a body of experts had been sent over to review the position. "It must be remembered that production in the United States was small compared with that in the United Kingdom. It was only certain

BRITAIN HIRES JAPANESE CHICKEN SEXERS

BRITONS FAILED IN TESTS

London, May 13.

Questioned in the House of Commons yesterday by Mr. R. De La Bere, Conservative Member for the Farnham Division of Wiltshire, on the subject of the employment of Japanese chicken sexers instead of British labour, Mr. Ernest Brown, Minister for Labour, said the Ministry of Agriculture did not consider that there were sufficient qualified Britons able to obtain the necessary speed and accuracy for commercial practice.

Amid laughter, Mr. Brown disclosed that the National Poultry Council had arranged chicken sexing tests in 1936 and none of the Britons who took the test were able to pass.

Replying to another question by Sir Adrian Baillie, Conservative Member for Tonbridge (Kent), the Minister said there were 18 Japanese chicken sexers at present employed in Great Britain, with permission to receive wages of a sovereign a week with board and lodging.

A substantial fee was also paid with respect to each man to the Japanese Chicken Sexing Association, through which their services were obtained. (Reuter).

types—mostly for training—that might be bought in America. A more important point in connection with the experts' visit across the Atlantic was the possibility of building up a large war potential in Canada, said the Minister.

Lord Winterton then spoke of the position relative to foreign powers. He gave assurance that the programme had been framed in the light of the best estimate available of the forces which could be brought against Britain in war. It was designed as a formidable deterrent against aggression and an effective defence in the event of attack.

The defence of Britain must be considered as a whole. They were carrying out simultaneously large scale extensions, refitting, re-buildings, and re-equipments in all three services at a cost approaching astronomical proportions. (British Wireless).

LIBERAL SUPPORT

London, May 13.

In addition to Labour Party opposition, the Liberals have tabled a motion calling for the appointment of a select committee to investigate aircraft supply, anti-aircraft defence and air raid precautions.

Mr. Winston Churchill supported the motion, and about 16 other Government supporters also tabled a motion welcoming the appointment of an independent committee of inquiry into the state of Britain's defences.

The debate on the Labour motion for an inquiry will take place in the House of Commons on May 15, when it is understood the Prime Minister will participate. (Reuter).

COMPRADOESHIP STATUS DETERMINED

Gilman's Official Wins Court Action

Judgment for defendant with costs was given by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, in the action brought by Mrs. Fong Shuk-king against her son-in-law, Leung Nai-yuen, regarding the compradoeship of Messrs. Gilman & Co. Ltd.

The action was for a declaration that, under an agreement made in February, 1937, plaintiff was a partner with defendant in the Compradoeship of Messrs. Gilman & Co. Ltd. Plaintiff also claimed for an injunction restraining defendant from excluding her from the partnership.

Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., instructed by Mr. E. S. C. Brooks, appeared for plaintiff, and defendant was represented by the Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada, Jr., on the instructions of Mr. H. L. Kwan.

His Lordship's judgment follows: On January 29, 1937 the defendant, Leung Nai-yuen, entered into an agreement with Messrs. Gilman & Co. Ltd. whereby on the terms and conditions therein stated he agreed to serve the Company as compradore. That agreement contained a provision for the termination of the agreement by three months' notice in writing by either party.

In February, 1937 the plaintiff and defendant concluded an agreement in the following terms:—"We, Leung Nai-yuen and Fong Shuk-king are makers of this agreement. Whereas Leung Nai-yuen has taken up the compradoeship of Messrs. Gilman & Co. of Hong Kong and Fong Shuk-king agreed to take up a share of $10,000 in the capital it is agreed between the said two parties that in the future all profits and losses in the business shall be divided into five equal parts of which four parts shall go to Leung Nai-yuen and one part to Fong Shuk-king. Words to the contrary shall not be allowed. This agreement is made out in two copies for each party to keep one copy as proof."

On February 10, 1937 the defendant gave the plaintiff a receipt, which reads as follows: Received payment from Mrs. Fong Shuk-king of the exact sum of $10,000 in Hong Kong currency being amount of money for a share in the compradore department of Messrs. Gilman & Co. This is proof. That receipt, in addition to the defendant's signature, bears the chop of the compradore department of Messrs. Gilman & Co. for receiving goods.

EXPERTS' ESTIMONY

All the relevant facts and material documents have been agreed, and the only oral testimony called at the trial was that of two experts in the Chinese language. These gentlemen, as experts so often do, differed fundamentally on the meaning which they assigned to isolated parts of the agreement sued on, particularly in regard to the characters "tsung loi" which the Court translator interpreted as "in the future."

For the plaintiff it has been urged that the characters, standing alone, mean "for ever and a day" and that their use in an agreement indicates a mutual desire for some measure of permanency. It was, perhaps, irrelevant for me to recall, as examination was succeeded by cross-examination, those pledges of undying love and affection which in actions of a rather different nature are never declared to be immortal, but are rather given decent burial by the award of an appropriate measure of damages.

For the defendant it was equally stoutly maintained that the characters "tsung loi" in fact mean "in the future," and that their use is related to the necessity for providing for the distribution of profit and loss between the partners after the date of the agreement.

ASSET OF PARTNERSHIP

When Sinologue doctors disagree the task of a judge who knows nothing of the Chinese language, its characters, or its idioms is an unenviable one, but in this case, fortunately, the conclusion to which I have come is based not on the linguistic niceties of what to me is an unknown tongue but on legal principles on which, I frankly admit, I feel more at home.

In the agreement no term for the duration of the partnership is expressed, and the partnership is therefore "prima facie" a partnership at will, and was determined by the defendant as from January 31, 1938, by virtue of the letter of January 28 which is in evidence. It is for the plaintiff, therefore, to satisfy me that, notwithstanding the express terms of the agreement this partnership is determinable only by mutual consent, by the defendant, ceasing to be compradore, to Messrs. Gilman & Co., or by operation of some statutory disability.

Mr. Potter's contention on the plaintiff's behalf, is that this is a partnership, for a single adventure, or, in more common parlance, a syndicate. He relies on the admitted fact that the sole asset of the partnership is the compradoeship, a fact which is clearly evidenced both by the terms of the partnership agreement and by the wording of the receipt. If the compradoeship comes to an end the partnership is automatically determined, and if the court holds that this is a partnership at will the sole asset will vest in the defendant, for the compradoeship is unassignable and, being so essentially a contract of personal service, is incapable of reasonably accurate valuation.

To hold that this is a partnership at will would therefore be to render inoperative the provisions of section 39 of the Partnership Ordinance 1897 and to deprive the plaintiff of her statutory rights to her share in the partnership asset.

Mr. D'Almada for the defendant relies on section 24 and 32 of the Partnership Ordinance 1897 and on the case of Syers v Syers (1 A.C. 174).

PARTNERSHIP AT WILL

The point for decision is one which has given me the greatest difficulty. The relation of employer and employee between Messrs. Gilman & Co. and the defendant are in no way affected by the partnership agreement. The dissolution of the partnership by mutual consent would leave the defendant as compradore, and nothing in the agreement can prevent Messrs. Gilman & Co. from giving due notice to the defendant.

The argument that in as much as the only partnership asset is unassignable it cannot reasonably be valued, is one which would determine my judgment in favour of the plaintiff were it not for the statutory provisions in section 33 of the Partnership Ordinance 1897 that the Plaintiff's death or bankruptcy would automatically dissolve the partnership, and, as partner, ship assets cannot vest in any one partner; there would, in either of these events, have to be a valuation of the partnership asset.

The conclusion to which I have come, though not without considerable hesitation, is that this partnership is a partnership at will, and has been duly determined by the defendant on January 31, 1938. It follows therefore that there must be judgment for the defendant, with costs.

The case of Amber v. Bolton L.R. 14 Equity 427 is in many respects so much in point that I cannot refrain from adding a few words. Though the consequence of my judgment is that the plaintiff is no longer a partner with the defendant she is still entitled to an account of the partnership and to share "pari passu" in the only partnership asset. In default of agreement between the parties as to the value to be placed on the defendant's compradoeship, I have liberty to either party to refer the matter to Chambers for determination.

SUMMARY COURT APPLICATION

For Discharge Of Warrant Of Distrain

SUGGESTION BY SOLICITOR

In the course of an application before the Police Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell, in the Summary Court yesterday, for the discharge of a warrant of distraint, a suggestion was made by Mr. H. J. Armstrong, of Messrs. Deacons, showing how sub-tenants might guard themselves against dishonest principal tenants.

The application was made by Wong Hon-sing, a sub-tenant of No. 5 Shelley Street, second floor, against which place a warrant for distraint was issued on May 5 on the application of the landlords, the Hong Kong Fire Insurance Co., Ltd., for arrears of four months' rent at $35 a month. All the goods and chattels in the premises were seized.

The claim was dismissed, but it is understood the case will be reopened this morning.

NOT DISPUTED

Mr. Armstrong, who appeared for the landlords, said he did not dispute that the goods seized in the rear cubicle belonged to the claimant, but he submitted that all the articles in the premises were in the apparent possession of the principal tenant, according to law.

It was stated that the principal tenant was Kan Chak, who, however, did not reside on the floor, which was divided into five cubicles. He appointed as agent Lam Lok-koo, who lived in the front cubicle.

The claimant told the Court he had been living in the rear cubicle for the past six years, and had paid the rent, $74.00, every month to Lam, who issued the receipt bearing the name of Kan.

Mr. Justice Lindell: I am sorry, the law is entirely against you. The law says that when the tenant is in arrears the landlord is entitled to go to the house and seize everything in it. Even though the sub-tenants have all paid their rent, they have no remedy except against the principal tenant. The only remedy I can suggest is that you should locate the principal tenant, who had apparently misappropriated the rent, and proceed against him. Against the landlords you have no redress.

Mr. Armstrong: "I asked this man whether he had asked the principal tenant to produce the receipt. He said he had but the principal tenant refused on the ground that it had nothing to do with him. It seems that the only way the sub-tenants can possibly protect themselves is to insist on the production of the receipt by the principal tenant before they pay their rent. In view of the presence of the Press, I think the widest publicity about this should be given."

His Lordship agreed, and advised the claimant that in future he should insist on the principal tenant producing the receipt for the previous month before paying the rent for the next.

DEATH FROM NATURAL CAUSES

An inquiry into the death of Lee Yiu-kee, 26, who died on March 22, after an operation at the Kwong Wah Hospital was held at the Kowloon Court yesterday, Mr. Macfarlane sitting as Coroner.

Messrs. A. Sommerfelt (Foreman), A. Kitchell, and Cheng Fan-chiu comprised the jury.

The inquiry was called because the brother of the deceased was not fully satisfied as to the circumstances of the death, as he was not informed of the operation.

The jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes due to toxæmia and shock following an operation for acute appendicitis.

Mr. E. H. Williams, Crown Counsel and Inspector O'Donovan, were present.

After the hearing, Mr. G. J. Grover was fined $5 for turning up late, when called as a juror.

FORTHCOMING WEDDINGS

The following forthcoming weddings are announced:—

Mr. Johan Divind Johnsen, shipping clerk, of No. 4 Luna Building, and Miss Marie Jacobsen, of Oslo, Norway, en route to the Colony by the s.s. Tai Yang.

Mr. King Luke, teacher at Mun Sang College, and Miss Sanly Yung, of No. 50 Taklung Road, second floor, Kowloon City.

GERMAN ENVOY LEAVES

Flying To Europe By Dorado

Herr E. Ott, German Ambassador to Japan, left on the Imperial Airways plane Dorado yesterday morning for Berlin. On Thursday Herr Ott was entertained at Government House, and a conference took place the same day between himself and the German Ambassador to China, Dr. Oscar Trautmann, who flew down from Hankow for the occasion.

Other passengers who left by the Dorado were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, who have been touring North China for the past four months. Mrs. Fisher is better known as Violet Cressy-Marks, the authoress.

Miss A. Wood of Bangkok also boarded the Dorado for that port. The plane carried 150.547 kilos of mail and 10,613 kilos of freight.

PLANES DELAYED

The Imperial Airways plane which was due to arrive yesterday was delayed for 24 hours and will arrive this evening.

The Pan-American Airways Clipper, scheduled to arrive yesterday, will arrive about 10.30 a.m. today and will stay in port about one hour before taking off on her return flight to Manila.

G.O.C. LEAVES FOR NORTH

Will Inspect His Majesty's Forces

His Excellency Major-General A. W. Bartholomew, General Officer Commanding the British Troops in China, sailed by the P. and O. liner Carthage for Shanghai on Thursday on a routine tour of inspection of the Forces in the North.

Accompanying the G.O.C. were Brigadier A. V. Thomson, M.B.E., Captain H. S. P. Hopkinson and Captain P. J. Howarth, A.D.C., while Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. Hopkinson are also travelling with the party.

In the absence of the G.O.C., who is expected back on June 10, Brigadier E. W. L. Bisset, D.S.O., M.C. will be in command of the Garrison.

CHINESE Y.W.C.A. MEETS TODAY

RESULTS OF RECENT FINANCIAL DRIVE

The annual meeting of the Chinese Young Women's Christian Association will be held at 7.30 p.m. today when Mrs. Siu-feng Huang, vice-president of the World's Y.W.C.A., will deliver an address. The meeting will be followed by a concert, and all friends and members are welcome.

At 5 p.m. today a thanksgiving service for the conclusion of the Finance Campaign will be held at the Association headquarters. All finance workers are cordially invited to attend.

Seven teams took part in the Campaign and a sum of $10,763.93 has been raised. The winning team, under the leadership of Mrs. Wong Pak-chau (captain) and Mrs. Wong Wa-lum (vice-captain), collected $2,690.08. Mrs. Li Tse-fong's team was a close second with a sum of $2,498.70, while Mrs. Lam-bert Kwok's team came third with a total of $1,871.00.

Of individual efforts, Mrs. Wong Lum-hing topped the list with a sum of $1,181.00. Mrs. Wong Wa-lum came second with $857.00, and Mrs. Li Tse-fong third with $710.00.

TALK ON HUMAN CHARACTER

Theosophical Society Lecture

Mr. M. R. Deb gave an interesting lecture entitled "Human Character As I See It" at the meeting of the Theosophical Society on Thursday.

Mr. Deb said in the course of his talk that the three basic emotions of man were Love, Anger and Fear. He said that men would do well to give a little time to the study of character and with a little self-adjustment add to the meagre store of understanding.

It was announced that Mr. R. K. Ling will give the second and last part of his address on "The Lotus Sutra" at the coming meeting on Thursday.

TAIKOO DOCKS TRAGEDY

Rivetting Machine Falls On Workmen

INQUEST VERDICT

A verdict of accidental death was recorded at the conclusion of an inquest held yesterday at the Central Court into the death of Tang Sum, boiler maker, employed in the Tarkoo Docks, who was killed on April 12.

Mr. Butters sat as Coroner assisted by a jury comprising Messrs. J. M. A. Ramjahn (Foreman), Woo Wing-chow and J. H. Howard.

Deceased and others were working on a ship under construction at the Tarkoo Docks. They were under a hydraulic rivetting machine which fell and landed on deceased and another workman, Yu San, both of whom died as a result of injuries sustained.

Wong Cheong, also a boiler maker, who was at work with the deceased, said that he was swung onto the deck of the ship and was rendered unconscious.

Deceased and Yu San were working under the rivetting machine.

Mr. W. B. Adams, of the staff of Tarkoo Docks, said that the hydraulic rivetting machine was seen in a fit and working condition by the No. 1 Chinese fitters who were responsible to see that it was in working order weekly.

CAUSE OF FALL

The fall of the machine was caused by the bolts having slipped. One of the bolts, he said, had been cracked approximately three or four days prior to the accident. When it gave way, the weight of the machine was forced onto the other bolt which was unable to stand the strain.

The major defects of the machine was that the bolts were too small and that to ensure safety, he advised that they should be about two inches in diameter.

In returning their verdict, the jury added that the accident was due to the 'defects of the bolts and recommended that Mr. Jackson's suggestions for the improvement of the machine should be applied.

Compensation to the deceased's families was also recommended.

CIVILISING BY DRUGS

WAR has always brought misery in its train but there can be nothing in history so foul, as the manner in which the Japanese are now trying to undermine, by the use of drugs, the health and morals of the inhabitants of the occupied areas in the north.

China and the world will always remember the stern and effective steps taken by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to stamp out the drug traffic and will regard the Japanese with loathing for the policy they are now following of encouraging the use of drugs amongst the Chinese and foreigners who are temporarily within their sphere of influence.

Early in 1936 the Nanking Government passed a law that every drug addict should present himself within the next 12 months at one or other of the centres provided for treatment and undergo a cure.

After that period anyone taking drugs was to suffer the death penalty.

THIS ACTION met with gratifying results and much remedial work was done during this period.
Those who did not come voluntarily were fetched and treated under prison conditions; the others had hospital care.

The expenses of all were met by their communities, rural or urban.

In Tientsin one city hospital was devoted to this work and another put aside part of its premises for the same purpose. Mission and private hospitals also gave treatment to addicts.

However, with Japan's invasion of China, the picture has changed; much of this good work has been obliterated.

When the "Peace Preservation Council" was set up in Tientsin by the Japanese last August it was immediately announced that the law was no longer applicable to the district.

The anti-narcotic hospital work was stopped and the drug habit has resumed its tyranny.

In the old Japanese concession there is a street in which 50 percent of the houses are drug "joints." They are not allowed to sell to the Japanese but foreigners and Chinese, both men and women, are offered narcotics openly as they walk by.

There is no need to stress the danger or quote actual cases to show how perilous is the position.

In helping the Japanese are no longer allowed to carry on this traffic but does that mean that it has been stopped?

KOREANS peddle Oh, no! THE
IN CHARGE drug shops are left in charge of Koreans under Japanese protection.

Any other traffickers are arrested and but to death.

Small boys are on the look-out for customers and lead them to the shops where the best grade of heroin—from Dairen—sells for $18 an ounce. Tientsin heroin is two and a half times cheaper.

Many of the traders have left Peiping to follow the Japanese Army and sow the vile seeds of the drug habit as they go. But their places are quickly filled.

In addition to the drug "joints," the Japanese have opened a number of small clinics in Peiping.

They are well lit and attractive.
One of them displays the red cross while most use illuminated signs to guide passers-by to their doors.

THESE clinics advertise in the papers the various diseases they claim to cure. The procedure in many of them seems to be that each person on entering is given a cursory examination by an unqualified doctor or dispenser and is then registered as suffering from some specific disease.

After that he is allowed as much heroin or morphine as he likes.
Three hundred addicts were set free from the city treatment centre recently and the institution

CORRESPONDENCE

RENTS LAW MUST BE CHANGED

(The Editor of the Hong Kong Daily Press)

Sir,—It is more in sorrow than in anger that the Court's decision in the eviction case today against Mr. S. W. Clark, the occupant of a flat in 134, Kennedy Road, will be received by the community.
Considerable satisfaction must, however, be derived from the fact that the learned Judge delivered himself of the reported comment that "until you tenants can get the law altered, I can do nothing about it."

His Lordship's comment is extremely apposite. Judges are, after all, in the position of administrators of the law as they find it. It is for the unofficial legislators in Council to act in accordance with the needs of changing times and changing conditions. The public whom they represent look to them for protection. A large number of the taxpayers feel that they should not be made to hope in vain.

It has at no time been represented to Government that a Rent Restriction Ordinance to meet the exceptional conditions created as a result of the Sino-Japanese hostilities should remain a permanent piece of legislative enactment.
The Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo urged at a Council meeting held in October last that, in his submission, the Bill he advocated should be regarded as an "emergency legislation."

Since those who can and should act will not, might not tenants as a class, who are so seriously affected by the attitude of those who
"just can't be bothered" to move in the matter, unite in a concerted effort towards securing the end indicated by the Judge presiding in the case at the Supreme Court this morning—an end so desirable in the interests of tenants hard oppressed but with no hope of redress in the existing state of the law?

NOT TO LET

(The Editor, Daily Press.)

Sir,—Having read an account of the interview with Professor Tan Yun Shan, published in your esteemed paper of yesterday's issue, respecting the sympathetic attitude of the Indian nation towards the Chinese, I take the first opportunity of acquainting Professor Tan before he leaves the Colony of the comparatively friendly attitude adopted by the Chinese landlords towards the local Indian residents.
Admittedly, this is taking a limited view point of things; nevertheless this represents the sentiments in general of the Chinese community towards my nationals here in Hong Kong.

I happen to be one of those unfortunate, to whose lot it has befallen that I must "scram" at the end of this month, from the house
I have occupied for the past three years, having all along paid my rents a month in advance—no amount of increase in rent satisfying the Landlord. Being desperate and on learning that a certain flat was to be let, I quickened my steps in the direction of my friend, the Chinese Landlord, only to meet with a flat refusal, just because I was an Indian—say, the Landlord thinking it below his dignity even to see me. Mine is not an isolated case. I know of several others, who have been likewise refused tenancy to vacant flats, on the grounds that they were not to be let to Indians.

I am proud, nevertheless, that my nation has such friendly and sympathetic feelings for the Chinese nation. In view of the very cordial treatment which we are at present receiving in response from our friends, the Chinese Landlords, I propose that Indian evacuees who happen to be in the same unenviable position as myself get together and observe a China Day in Hong Kong, in appreciation of the preferential and friendly treatment they are meeting out to us.

Three Cheers for the Landlords

SIREN TESTED IN CITY

WOMEN'S UNIT TO BE FORMED

The willingness on the part of most people generally to cooperate in air raids precaution work was favourably commented on by Wing-Commander A. H. S.
Steele-Perkins, Air Raids Precaution Officer, yesterday, in connection with the testing of the "Typhoon" type of siren alarm in the Central district.

Commander Steele-Perkins said he had visited the railway, the electric works, private docks, storage plants, the gas works, and elsewhere and these were now all evolving schemes for protection in the event of an air raid. It was proposed to issue shortly a circular letter to all business firms employing a certain number of people seeking their co-operation with the Government.

"It is proposed further," Commander Steele-Perkins went on, "to form a Women's Air Raid Precaution Unit to teach the women of Hong Kong simple air raid precautions so that if the necessity arose they can apply those lessons to their own households. This organisation will work through the existing societies, the Helena May Institute, etc., and lectures will be given by qualified anti-air instructors and medical officers.

"By this it is hoped to train a number of women here with a view also to obtaining volunteers who will give their services, if required, for certain air raid precaution work."

NOT ENTIRE SUCCESS:

Wing-Commander Steele-Perkins witnessed the testing of the siren alarm together with Mr. W. R.
Scott, Acting Deputy Commissioner of Police, but no official statement regarding the success or otherwise of the test has yet been issued.

The siren was mounted on a lorry, the test beginning in Hollywood Road. From observations and enquiries made by a representative of the Daily Press, it cannot be said to have been an entire success, a number of people in various office buildings stating that they did not hear anything.
It must be added, however, that others nearby claimed they heard the alarm clearly.

WORLD STUDENT DELEGATES ENTERTAINED

General Chan Ki-yau Expresses Thanks

The two representatives of the World Student Delegation, Messrs.
B. Floud and James Klagmann, were entertained by various Chinese officials at a tea party held at the residence of General Chan Ki-yau. Messrs. Choi Yuen-pui and Sung Chee-man were among those present.

A friendly discussion followed
during which the Chairman,
General Chan Ki-yau, said:—

"We greatly appreciate your visit and feel you will understand our indignation at the unprovoked invasion and wanton destruction of lives and property, and the unnecessary suffering of women and children.

"When you have been through China and seen for yourselves the situation as it is today, I am sure you will return home with an unbiased opinion of the sufferings of our people at the hands of the enemy."

"We ask you to go further by aiding us in explaining what you have seen and heard thereby enlisting sympathy, and strengthening the friendship of the rest of the world for China."

"In Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek we have a great leader and under his leadership the people of China are determined to do their duty to him and their country.
This is seen in the improved situation since the outbreak of hostilities, particularly within the last few months.

"I am sending a telegram to the Generalissimo telling him of your visit, your friendly interest and of impending visit to the North. In conclusion, I wish to thank you for the honour you paid us by calling here today, and wish you a safe and pleasant journey."

WHERE THE 3D PIECES GO
Big Orders From Colonies

Several theories to explain the comparative scarcity of threepenny pieces were advanced recently.

Since the 12-sided variety of the coin was issued a year ago, 50,000, 000 have been minted, but very few appear to be in general circulation.

The explanation given by a member of a well-known firm of numismatists was that banks do not issue the coins unless requested to do so.

"Banks consider them a nuisance," he said, "and are reluctant to handle them. For one thing a special compartment in their tills is necessary."

The Royal Mint is of the opinion that millions are still being kept as curios, many people thinking that they would soon be withdrawn from circulation.

"The 50,000,000 that have been issued to date," said an official, "is not really very many. We shall continue to mint them, and no doubt it will not be very long before they will be in general circulation."

300 IN ONE ORDER
London dealers have been receiving orders from abroad for these three-penny pieces.

"Recently one of the Colonies ordered 300 of the coins, which were collected and despatched in one day," said a dealer.

A woman who runs a small poker club in Kensington stated that the 12-sided three-penny pieces were in her opinion, "the most marvellous things for a game of poker."

"Directly the coins were issued,"
she said, "we got a bag of 25 worth from the bank. Since then we have collected them from shops and post offices, and at the present moment I have a bag in my room which is weighed down with them.

"We are only a small circle of eight or nine friends, but most of us belong to other clubs, where the same practice is followed. I think it is almost universal now."

Just how rare are the new threepenny pieces is illustrated by the fact that a jewellery firm in Oxford-street is selling them for 4d each.

"We sell many to people from the country," said a member of the firm, "and especially to people from Northern Ireland."

DECREE NISI

The petition was not defended.
Mr. H. C. Macnamara, instruct-

Mr. Golbert.

TESTATOR'S FEAR OF WAR

Mr. Maximilian James Eccles
Tilney, of The Knowles, Hampstead-road, Watford, engineer, who left £52,501 (n.p. £48,541), stated:

"In view of the fact that a general European war is almost certain to take place in a few years' time, if not earlier, it seems to me desirable to make provision in the event of none of the beneficiaries being alive to come into enjoyment of what I may leave, this being owing to the fact that the beneficiaries are all concentrated in the south-east corner of England which will be the first to receive enemy attention. I also realise that if a war does occur the value of my estate will have shrunk to a mere fraction of the amount at which it now stands."

He therefore, mentioned no specific sums, and directed that if his wife, his children, or any of their children did not survive him his estate should pass to certain nephews and nieces, or if dead to their children.

CLARENDON
PALACE DISCOVERIES

13th Century Kiln

A 13th century tile-kiln—the first well-preserved mediaeval kiln discovered in a secular setting—was described to a meeting of the Society of Antiquaries recently by Dr.
Tancred Borenius and Mr. John Charlton in their report on the fifth season of excavation on the site of Clarendon Palace, near Salisbury.

A small model of the kiln was shown, as well as a photograph taken from above. The importance of the discovery is that nearly all mediaeval tile-kilns found in the past have been on monastic sites.

Among other exhibits shown were decorated "wasters" found in the kiln, and it is now thought probable that the numerous tiles found at Clarendon Palace were made on the spot. Dr. Borenius and Mr.
Charlton suggested that a number of tile-makers were specially employed at the Palace producing designs for the Royal apartments.

Excavation has also thrown light on the use of tiles for interior decoration in mediaeval England.

ADVANCING JAPANESE FORCES CHECKED AT KINHSIANG

Invaders Drown In The Weishan Lake

CHINESE RECAPTURE SEVERAL IMPORTANT POINTS

Hsuehchow, May 13.
The advancing Japanese forces in south-west Shantung, moving down from Taining and Chihshiang, were checked last night at Kinhsiang, where heavy fighting is now progressing.

Lt-General Kondo Dohara is directing operations in this sector. Chinese forces are attacking Chihshiang, from the flanks, in order to check the movements of Japanese units southward.

A detachment of Japanese troops from Lincheng, on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway attempted to reach Hsuehchow via the Weishan Lake but met with fierce Chinese resistance. Many Japanese were drowned.

Another Japanese column, starting out from Wenshang, advanced westward and claimed to have captured Huncheng. The Chinese forces there withdrew to the west and is waiting for reinforcements to stage a counter-attack.—(International).

PIERCED FIGHTING

Shanghai, May 13.
Fierce fighting continued unabated in many parts of south Shantung, including Howma, Kuwo and Monchengchen, along the Fen River, today.

Large numbers of Chinese guerrillas, after crossing the Yellow River to south Shantung, have secured close contact with regular Chinese forces and are launching a concerted attack on Chiehshien, on the border of the Yenchi Lake.

A number of important points from Pinglo to Yuncheng, it is claimed, have been recaptured by the Chinese during the past few days.—(Central News).

INACTIVITY ON SOUTH SHANTUNG FRONT

Chinese Recapture Yungchen, Strategic City

Hankow, May 13.
With inactivity prevailing on the south Shantung front, the Chinese forces are turning their attention to the Japanese column which is advancing from Mengchen, about forty-five miles north-west of Pengpu, in a direction towards the Lungshai Railway.

Latest Chinese despatches indicate that the Japanese column is being attacked by two Chinese detachments, one from Hsuehchow and the other from the west of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway. The latter is said to be harassing the rear of the column from Mengchen, Tengyuan and Fengyang.

An unconfirmed Chinese report says that the Chinese yesterday recaptured Mengchen and, if true, this means the collapse of the daring Japanese move to cut the Lungshai Railway and Hsuehchow from the south.

Chinese despatches also state that Japanese troops entered Yungchen, a strategic city in south Honan, immediately south of Tientsin Station on the Lungshai Railway, on the night of May 11, but claim the city was recaptured the following day.

The Japanese advance westward from Wenshang towards Yungchen, according to Chinese circles, is for the purpose of joining up with the Japanese forces at Puyang and Puhshien, south of Hopen. These forces are at present said to be crossing the Yellow River in an attempt to march eastward.

After meeting the two columns, the combined force is expected to strike southward from the Yungchen area towards the Lungshai Railway in the vicinity of Lanfeng and Kaifeng.—(Reuter).

On Wednesday H.E. the Governor and Lady Northcote will visit the Haw Par Hospital at Cheung Chau.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, will be present at the annual dinner of the Hong Kong Volunteer Defence Corps on Friday. His Excellency will present the prizes.

THE IRONY OF FATE

GIRL STUDENT KILLED WHEN RUSHING HOME

Canton, May 13.
The death of Miss Yip Lai-lo, a student of Sun Yat-sen University, yesterday, was an irony of fate, as she was rushing home from the classroom and was killed by a Japanese bomb, said her classmates.

The alarm was sounded at 7.45 a.m. and the Japanese planes were overhead by 8.30. Classes were dismissed, and Miss Yip rushed home to take shelter. She lived in No. 12 Fei Ha Fong, Tak-Cheng Street, which is about 100 yards east of the city buildings of Sun Yat-sen University.

A freshman in the Department of Economics, School of Law, Miss Yip Lai-lo was well liked by her fellow students, being known as "Queen of the University." She is the daughter of Mr. Yip Ha-shing, well-known local lawyer.

Two spies were caught directing the raid, although Fei Ha Fong a quiet residential alley with several modern style houses, is not a military objective in any sense.—(International).

Dutch Cheer Royal Baby

The Hague, May 12.
From a window in Noordeinde Palace, Princess Juliana this afternoon showed four-month-old Princess Beatrix, darling of all the Netherlands, to a cheering crowd gathered at the gates.

The baby Princess was still clad in her baptismal robes as her mother held her up for all the multitude to see.
Princess Juliana was visibly touched by the enthusiasm of the demonstrators, especially when, shortly afterwards, she appeared on the balcony alone to hear 10,000 school children singing patriotic songs.—(Reuter).

JAPAN'S PROMISE TO RESPECT CHINESE CUSTOMS' INTEGRITY INCOMPLETE, COMMONS TOLD

London, May 13.
During Question time in the House of Commons yesterday, the Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. R. A. Butler, disclosed that it had been found impossible during the recent negotiations with Japan to secure a definite undertaking that no change was contemplated in the international character of the Chinese Customs.

The Japanese Foreign Minister, Mr. Koki Hirota, had, however, given oral assurance that the Japanese Government had every intention of maintaining the integrity of the Chinese Customs to the fullest extent permitted under the present abnormal conditions.

Mr. Butler declared there was nothing in the recent arrangement with Tokyo to justify the suggestion that the British Government had acquiesced in Japanese interference with the Chinese Customs administration.

On the contrary, the British Government had repeatedly impressed upon the Japanese Government their interest in maintaining in every respect the authority and integrity of the Customs service and a uniform tariff for all China, applied impartially to all nations.—(Reuter).

SERIOUS DROUGHT IN ENGLAND

London, May 13.
Nearly all Britain, except the southeast, had showers of rain last night but the rainfall was not great enough to bring relief to the water shortage. Drought in many parts of the country is becoming serious.—(Reuter Bulletin).

Herr Henlein's Sudden Trip To London

EVOQUES CROP OF SPECULATIONS

LONDON, MAY 13.
THE LEADER OF THE SUDETEN GERMAN PARTY IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, HERR KONRAD HENLEIN, ARRIVED IN LONDON BY AIR YESTERDAY.

His arrival created a surprise and all evoked a crop of speculations on all sides. Nothing is known of the visit in official quarters and apparently even members of the Czech Legation staff did not know Herr Henlein's intention to visit London. German quarters also have no knowledge.

Political observers presume that Herr Henlein has come to discuss the Sudeten German problem with personal friends in Britain.—(Reuter).

BRUSSELS-AFRICA AIR SERVICE IMPROVED

Brussels, May 13.
The Sebada air line have placed a special Junkers plane on the service between Brussels and Leopoldville, in the Belgian Congo.

The machine carries 17 passengers and a crew of three, and will make the 8,000 kilometre trip in five days.—(Transocean).

WARNING AGAINST DRUG DANGERS WHEN SLIMMING

To slim vigorously without proper medical supervision is to court danger, declared Sir Edmund Spriggs recently. Sir Edmund, who is a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, was speaking in the British Medical Association series of lectures in the National Fitness Campaign at the Ideal Home Exhibition, London.

"Although the body can go for long periods without proper nutrition," he said, "its resistance to disease is, among other things, considerably reduced, and the mental ability is affected."

The casual taking of slimming drugs was also a dangerous practice. Health was more important than weight.

NURSERIES FOR WAR WAIFS

Hankow, May 13.
The Chinese Catholic War Relief Society has decided to open three war nurseries at Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang respectively to accommodate the abandoned infants in the war zones. The sites of these nurseries have been chosen, and full approbation and assurance of protection obtained from the authorities of the three cities.—(Central News).

Evacuation of civilians in Amoy across the strait to Kulangsu commenced on the morning of May 10, and continued until the evening.

REFUGEE'S STORY
One of the refugees from Amoy who arrived in Hong Kong yesterday on board the ss. Fungking, interviewed by a representative of the Daily Press, gave a graphic account of what took place when the Japanese navy bombarded the island while the planes rained murder from above.

"The attack came with startling suddenness," he said. "At the first sound of the booming of guns from the warships along the coast, a large number of Chinese rushed to the seashore to see what was taking place. While they stood watching, shells from the warships screamed over their heads and, in a few minutes, from an interested crowd of spectators the populace became a panic-stricken crowd. Their feelings were increased when a squadron of bombers roared overhead and dropped a barrage of bombs which were intended to cover the landing party from the warships."

"The terror-stricken Chinese made a rush for Kulangsu and a large number of them sought safety in the International Settlement, to which the majority of them were admitted. The remainder sought safety in the hills."

INTERMITTENT BOMBING
"The bombardment and bombing went on intermittently throughout the day while the sound of rifle-fire between the Chinese troops and the Japanese landing party was distinctly audible on all sides. It was not till late in the night that a little quiet was restored, and even then there were periods when the rattle of machine-guns and the detonations of bombs were heard."

Our informant added that he was confident that the Chinese troops would soon be able to drive the Japanese back to their ships.

U.S. Protests Germans Broke Friendship

Berlin, May 13.
It is learned that the American Ambassador to Berlin has made representations to Germany against violation of the German-American Treaty of Friendship.

Under the terms of the Treaty, American subjects and American property in Germany enjoy equal rights with those of German subjects and property in the United States.

It is understood that the United States Government wishes assurances that property of Austrian and German Jews of American citizenship will not be appropriated.

The United States admits no distinction between Aryan and non Aryan Americans.—(Reuter).

GUERRILLAS RETAKE FENGYANG

Hankow, May 13.
Attacking the Japanese along the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, south of Pengpu, Chinese guerrilla units last night recaptured Fengyang, the Japanese retreating to Lin-huankwan.

The Chinese forces destroyed the Japanese defence works and barracks and took away arms left behind by the enemy.

Japanese units at Pengpu are also harassed by the guerrillas, although the enemy are still holding the town.—(International).

AUSTRALIANS WIN AGAIN

London, May 13.
The Australians beat Cambridge by an innings and 425 runs. Cambridge 193 (Gibbs 80; Ward 64).—(Reuter).

On Saturday next His Excellency the Governor and Lady Northcote will attend the Races at Happy Valley. In the evening they will be present at the performance of "Busman's Holiday" by the Y.M.C.A. Amateur Dramatic Club.

KING RECEIVES SIR C. LITTLE

London, May 13.
His Majesty the King today received Admiral Sir Charles Little on relinquishing his post as Commander-in-Chief of the China Station.

It will be recalled that Sir Charles left for home before the expiration of his command owing to ill-health. Sir Charles was in Shanghai during the height of the hostilities in that area last year.—(Reuter).

DACOITS SEIZE BRITON

Rangoon, May 12.
A Police communique issued this afternoon states that 13 armed Chinese dacoits recently kidnapped 30 persons in Kachin State.

Twenty-three persons have since been released. One Briton is among the seven still held for ransom.

Measures have been taken for co-ordinating action with the Chinese authorities to deal with the dacoits.—(Reuter).

U.S.S. Marblehead called at Hong Kong yesterday but left again immediately for Amoy.

JAPANESE PLANES DROP BOMBS IN CONGESTED SECTION OF CHENGCHOW

Catholic Church Destroyed In Early Morning Raids

64 Killed: 25 Wounded

Chengchow, May 13.
Terror reigned in Chengchow when twenty-four Japanese planes rained more than a hundred high explosive missiles on the most congested sections of the city in two successive raids at 5.05 and 10.29 this morning.

Sixty-four Chinese men and women were killed and twenty-five wounded while a total of 316 houses were either demolished or damaged.

Bent on terrorizing the people, the Japanese airmen concentrated their attack on the business and residential sections of the city. Both the Chinese-American Hospital, owned by American missionaries, and the Italian Catholic Church were made targets of their wanton attack.

Seven bombs were dropped only a few yards from the hospital. Another missile, landing in the hospital compound, killed more than a dozen people who were taking shelter there, and demolished two houses. The terrific concussion of the explosion also made a large gap in the walls of the hospital close by.

The Italian Catholic Church was completely destroyed by fifteen bombs, some of which scored direct hits. More than sixty rooms were razed to the ground.

Two inmates of the Church, who failed to take refuge in the dugout, were killed.

The hospital and church authorities, it is learned, have wired the details of the Japanese raid to the American and Italian Embassies asking for redress.

Further along Tatung Street, in the centre of the city, the Rotarian High School was hit by three bombs. Three persons were wounded by shrapnel while four houses were demolished.

A small bomb, which fell on a bridge, damaged the structure and killed fifteen people who were taking shelter underneath.

During the raids, the Chinese anti-aircraft batteries went into action and forced the Japanese airmen to fly at a high altitude most of the time.—(Central News).

CZECH MINISTER KILLED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Prague, May 13.
The Deputy Foreign Minister, M. Bohdan Pavlu, lost his life in a motoring accident near the village Bosonish-Novl, in Yugoslavia, yesterday evening, according to press reports here.

The Minister, who was driving himself, lost control and the car plunged into the river.

The Minister's wife bashed the closed windows of the car and succeeded in reaching the bank of the river, while the Minister and two other occupants of the car were drowned.

Madame Pavlu suffered a fracture of the left arm and internal injuries.

M. Pavlu was until recently Czechoslovakian Minister in Moscow.—(Transocean).

R.A.M.C. DANCE SUCCESS

The Royal Army Medical Corps Association held a very successful Carnival Dance at the Hotel Cecil last evening. The music was supplied by the dance orchestra of the P. and O. s.s. Corfu, under the direction of Mr. "Dicky" Buckley.

Spot prizes were presented during the evening.
Mr. A. A. Barton very ably filled the role of M.C.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES

LAWN BOWLS FORECASTS FOR THIS AFTERNOON

Craigengower And Indians Should Win Again

The results of the lawn bowls matches last Saturday were very much as expected, the only surprise being the defeat of Club de Recreio, at the hands of the Kowloon Cricket Club.

Early though the season is there are only two unbeaten teams in the first division, namely Craigengower and the Indian R.C., while Kowloon Football Club is the only team to boast a 100 per cent record in the Third Division. In the Second Division all the clubs are on level terms, each one having won one and lost one of the two matches played so far.

The forecast for today's matches is as follows:—

FIRST DIVISION
Craigengower Cricket Club	v. Police Recreation Club
Kowloon Cricket Club	v. Kowloon Bowling Green Club
Kowloon Dock R.C.	v. Club de Recreio
Civil Service Cricket Club	v. Indian Recreation Club
SECOND DIVISION
Hong Kong F.C. "A"	v. Civil Service Cricket Club
Craigengower Cricket Club	v. Club de Recreio
Kowloon Bowling G.C.	v. Talkon Recreation Club
Police Recreation Club	v. Hong Kong F.C. "B"
THIRD DIVISION
Club de Recreio	v. Kowloon Football Club
Kowloon Tong R.C.	v. Kowloon Cricket Club
Hong Kong Football Club	v. Craigengower Cricket Club
Hong Kong Electric R.C.	v. Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club

The following are some of the lawn bowls team for the week-end:

THE BASEBALL LEAGUE

MINDANAO WILL MEET VOLUNTEERS THIS AFTERNOON

TWO GAMES AT C. HILL ON SUNDAY

Another full programme of League baseball fixtures will be added during the week-end.

At the Caroline Hill diamond this afternoon, the U.S.S. Mindanao squad, who are favourites for the title, will meet the Hong Kong Volunteers Baseball Club. It will be recalled that the Mindanao nine were sensationally defeated by the Recreio last Saturday and suffered another setback the following day when they were nosed out by the Indians.

Tomorrow, the Chinese Baseball Club will meet the Indians at 10 a.m. and in the second game of the day Recreio will clash with the Hong Kong Baseball Club. Keen play should be witnessed in both fixtures.

The following is the programme for this week-end:—

TODAY
U.S.S. Mindanao v. Volunteers.
TOMORROW
Chinese v. Indians.
Recreio v. H.K. Baseball Club.
SATURDAY, MAY 21

SUNDAY, MAY 24
Volunteers v. Indians.
Chinese v. Recreio.

ARMY HOCKEY REVIEWED

VERY FULL SEASON

The Army hockey season has come to an end except for a few unit matches that remain to be decided and in all a very successful year was had by all connected with the game. Due to the presence of two Indian Battalions in the Colony more matches were played in 1937-38 than usual.

The Small Units Competition resulted in a draw between H.Q. Wing, Middlesex and 3rd Medium Battery, H.K.S.R.A., while the Large Units Competition was won by the Rajputana Rifles with the Royal Scots as runners-up.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the Royal Scots have improved a lot since their arrival in the Colony late last winter. When they first played here they found the grass pitches strange to play on, having had all their hockey on sand pitches in India.

DRAW WITH MACAO

The Army team had a match against Macao sharing four goals after a very clean and fast game. Most of the units paid a visit to Macao during the winter and each side put up a good show against the Macao team which recently beat Hong Kong in the annual interport encounter. The Rajputana Rifles had the distinction of beating this strong Macao eleven.

Due to transport problems the Army team's visit to Singapore was cancelled but it is hoped the trip may be made next season.

During the summer most of the unit teams will continue to play on the sand pitches at Shamshui and on the Marina ground and next season it is hoped an officers' eleven will play regularly.

The ground at Sookunpoo is being enlarged to full size and is also being returfed. It is also hoped to generally improve the U.S.R.C. ground as much as possible.

Lieut. Pritam Nath of the Rajputana Rifles will be badly missed next season. He was easily the finest centre forward in the Colony in 1937-38. The Army may be consoled, however, by the fact that a new player for this position has recently arrived. He is attached to the Royal Scots and his first game here will be looked forward to with interest.

ZAM-BUK Heals
Without A Scar.

AS soon as you smear Zam-Buk on crippling leg sores, abscesses or ulcers, quick, antiseptic healing starts. This is because the valuable herbal oils in Zam-Buk are readily absorbed into the tissues and get to the roots of the trouble. Zam-Buk soothes pain, reduces inflammation and dries up unpleasant discharges. When it has thoroughly cleansed the diseased places Zam-Buk heals without a scar. Doctors and nurses everywhere use and recommend Zam-Buk.

£6000 ON HEAD OF FUTURE STAR

Birmingham's Offer For Stockport's Reid

Stockport county are going down to the Third Division and after only one season in the Second Division, writes a Home correspondent.

For all this, unhappy Stockport County have in their team one of the most remarkable young players in football at the present time.

This is Douglas Reid, the right-half.

Doug, Scottish-born and reared in Manchester, is 20. But Stockport County put his transfer value at more than £5000.

Five thousand pounds, in these days of sky-scraper transfer fees, is not a colossal sum of money. For a 20-years-old footballer it is.

The club nearest to signing the services of this lean, big-framed youth are Birmingham. Their chairman watched Doug Reid play against Aston Villa. This move was just another in a series which has been made by the St. Andrew's club.

BIRMINGHAM OFFER

Previous to their chairman's visit I understand that Birmingham had offered to pay Stockport County £4000 for Reid's transfer and to let the County have three Birmingham players in exchange.

This offer was considered by Stockport County—and turned down. The County directors wanted another £500.

All that makes this young Scot very nearly the highest-valued player in football. I know that over £10,000 was paid by Aston Villa for Jimmy Allen. But when Jimmy left Portsmouth, he was an international and a fully developed footballer.

STOCKPORT'S VALUATION

This Reid is not nearly fully developed. He is big, strong. In a year or two he will be one of the best physical specimens in the game. Just now he is immature and Stockport County put his value at something like £5000.

That's not bad for a club facing relegation to the Third Division.

£5000 Asked For John Mackie

I recently met Fred Westgarth and Harold Peall, respectively manager and coach of Bradford City. No. 1 topic in the conversation was John Mackie, Bradford City's centre-half.

Fred and Harold claimed that John Mackie, a Scot whom Bradford City signed from Hull City, is "out of his class" in the Northern Section. They implied that John should be in First Division football.

Agreed. This won't happen so long as Bradford City want £5000 as the transfer fee. This was asked from Liverpool when the Anfielders were hot on the scent.

Liverpool were ready to do business. When that £5000 was mentioned Liverpool just faded away. Even if they had watched John Mackie in seven or eight successive games.

First Division clubs have a natural reluctance to paying tall figures to Northern Section clubs. This may not be right. The player "v" be "well worth the money."

Watch The Wednesday!

Sheffield Wednesday for promotion. Sounds crazy. But that's what a Sheffield man told me this week. And damn me if I'm not inclined to believe him.

Not this season of course. But I'll say this. If Wednesday steer clear of trouble and manage to stay up I'm tipping them to be tops next year.

EARL OF HAREWOOD

Again A Steward-Of Jockey Club

The Earl of Harewood was elected a Steward of the Jockey Club recently in place of Lord Brassey of Apethorpe, who retired.

Lord Harewood was made a member of the Jockey Club in 1920 and became a Steward ten years later. He was Senior Steward in 1932.

There are three Stewards of the Jockey Club. The Senior Steward retires each year and another member of the Club is appointed Steward.

U.S. BASEBALL RESULTS

Chicago Cubs Win

New York, May 12. Adverse weather conditions again caused the curtailment of both the National and American Baseball League programmes today.

New York Giants, leaders in the National section, were not engaged, but Chicago Cubs, second in the League table, won their match against Brooklyn Dodgers.

In the American League, New York Yankees lost their first match for several days when they were beaten by Cleveland Indians. It was a tight game and was decided by the odd run in five.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	R.	H.	E.
Brooklyn	5	8	1
Chicago	9	12	0
Boston	0	6	0
Cincinnati	4	5	0

HASSETT MAKES HIGH SCORE

Australians' Match With Cambridge

London, May 12. The Australian cricket tourists made another mammoth score in their match against Cambridge University.

After compiling 541 against Worcester, 679 for seven wickets against Oxford and 590 for five against Leicester, the tourists have now hit up 708 for five against the Light Blues.

A. L. Hassett made his third successive three-figure score and his highest innings of the tour by scoring 229 not out, giving a masterly display of batting. He was at the wickets for 266 minutes and hit 35 boundaries.

C. L. Badcock also shone, hitting up 166, which included a six and 29 fours.

In their fourth wicket partnership, Hassett and Badcock put on 275 runs in 185 minutes.

Yesterday, Fingleton scored 111 and Bradman 137.

At close of play today, Cambridge had made 73 for the loss of two wickets. Their first innings realised 120.—(Reuter).

LORD DERBY A SUCCESSFUL OWNER

Lord Derby, who has just appointed Mr. Adrian Scrope, of the Sledmere stud, to manage his studs at Newmarket, is one of the three or four most successful owners on the turf, writes a Home correspondent.

In the last five years his winnings have shown a falling off but since the war he has won more than £450,000 in stakes.

His best year was 1928, when his horses won £63,919. Lord Derby annually donates to the British Legion 5 per cent. of the stakes he wins.

COSTS £650 A YEAR

Despite these big winnings, I should not think Lord Derby has shown a profit on his racing in recent years. He once said that each horse he keeps in training costs him £650 a year, and as a conservative estimate his outlay on his racing stable must be between £225,000 and £30,000 a year. In addition, his annual outlay in his studs must amount to about £20,000, though he probably nets a small annual profit from this source.

Altogether I should doubt if he has cleared above £50,000 from his breeding and racing of his horses in the 20 years since the war.

CAMBRIDGE WIN 50-0

The Cambridge University touring team overwhelmed Harvard by 50 points to nil recently. At half-time the score was 27-0.

D. W. T. Ritchie was again in fine form, scoring four dropped goals, converting three tries and scoring a try himself. A magnificent run half the length of the field by K. D. Downes brought another try.

Other scorers were J. Parsons (two tries), A. E. Mallet (two), J. H. Steeds (one) and D. A. Campbell (one try and one dropped goal).
